

The background of the entire slide is a dark, atmospheric scene. At the top, numerous small, silver knives are shown falling from the sky. A large, bright full moon is positioned in the upper right quadrant. The lower portion of the image shows a dark, silhouetted tree branch on the left and a black metal fence in the foreground. Through the fence, a path of light leads towards a distant, hazy horizon.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE

One story - multiple endings

Welcome to Our Creative Book Project!

We are proud to present this unique collection of alternative endings to a story we explored together in class. This project was a journey of creativity, collaboration, and dedication, and we are excited to share the results with you.

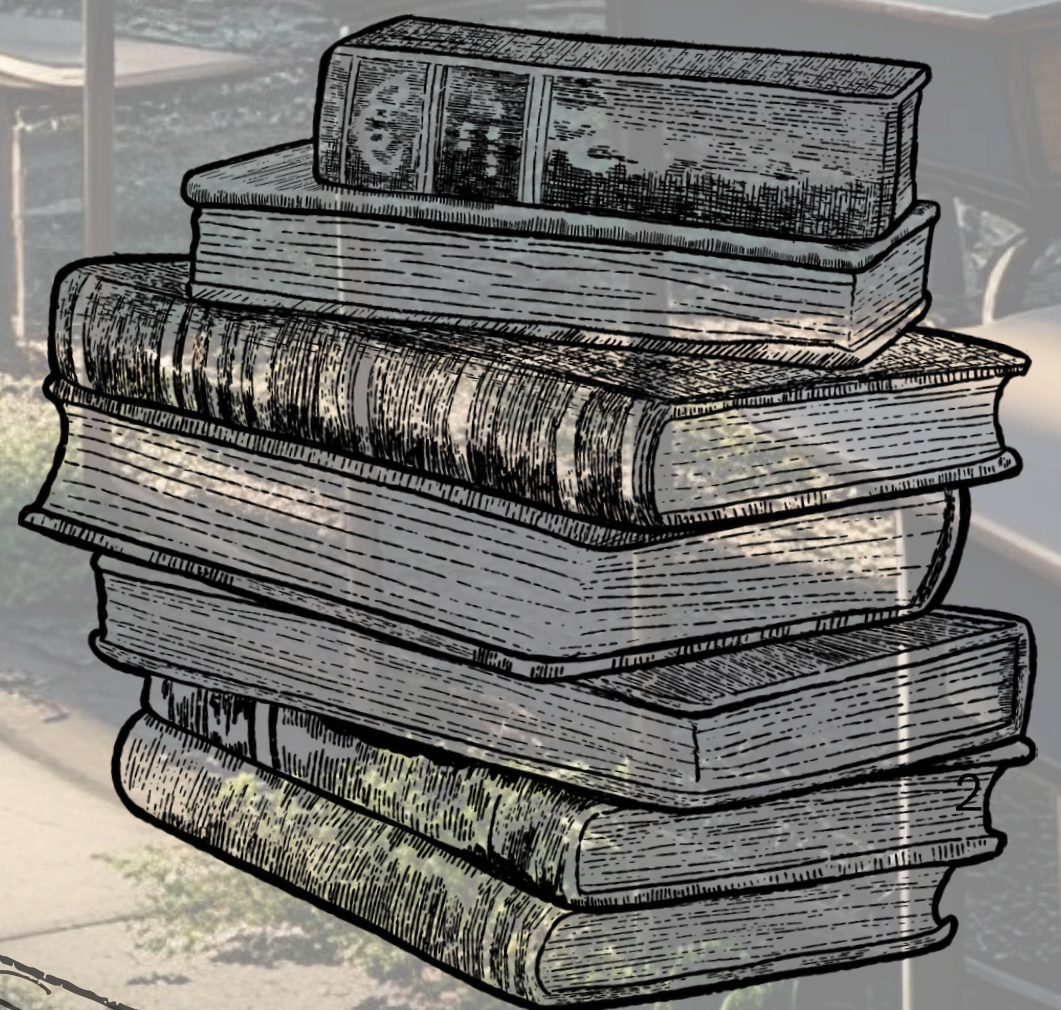

The process began with each student writing their own alternative ending to the story, allowing their imaginations to run wild and take the plot in unexpected directions. Once the first drafts were completed, we moved on to the next step: peer feedback. Each student carefully read and provided constructive comments on a classmate's work, helping each other refine their ideas and improve their writing.

After the peer review, the teacher provided individualized feedback for every student's story. This extra layer of support ensured that each text was polished and the narrative flow was strong. With all the feedback considered and final edits made, the students typed their revised stories into Word documents, preparing them for the next exciting phase.

The project then took a collaborative turn as we moved to Canva, creating a shared document that everyone could access and contribute to. Each student was given the freedom to design the background of one page in the document. There were no limits to their creativity — some combined Canva's built-in elements, others experimented with AI-generated art, and a few even crafted their designs entirely from scratch. This open-ended approach resulted in a vibrant and diverse visual representation of their stories.

Once the backgrounds were complete, the final step was to add the stories to their beautifully designed pages. The result is this collaborative book — a reflection of each student's unique voice, both in their writing and their design choices.

We hope you enjoy reading these imaginative endings and admiring the creative designs as much as we enjoyed creating them. Happy reading!

The Haunted House

I walked the dog after dinner last night and when it was time to return home, I decided to take a shortcut through the woods.

On the edge of the wood stands a deserted house. When I walked past the house I heard a strange noise. Suddenly...

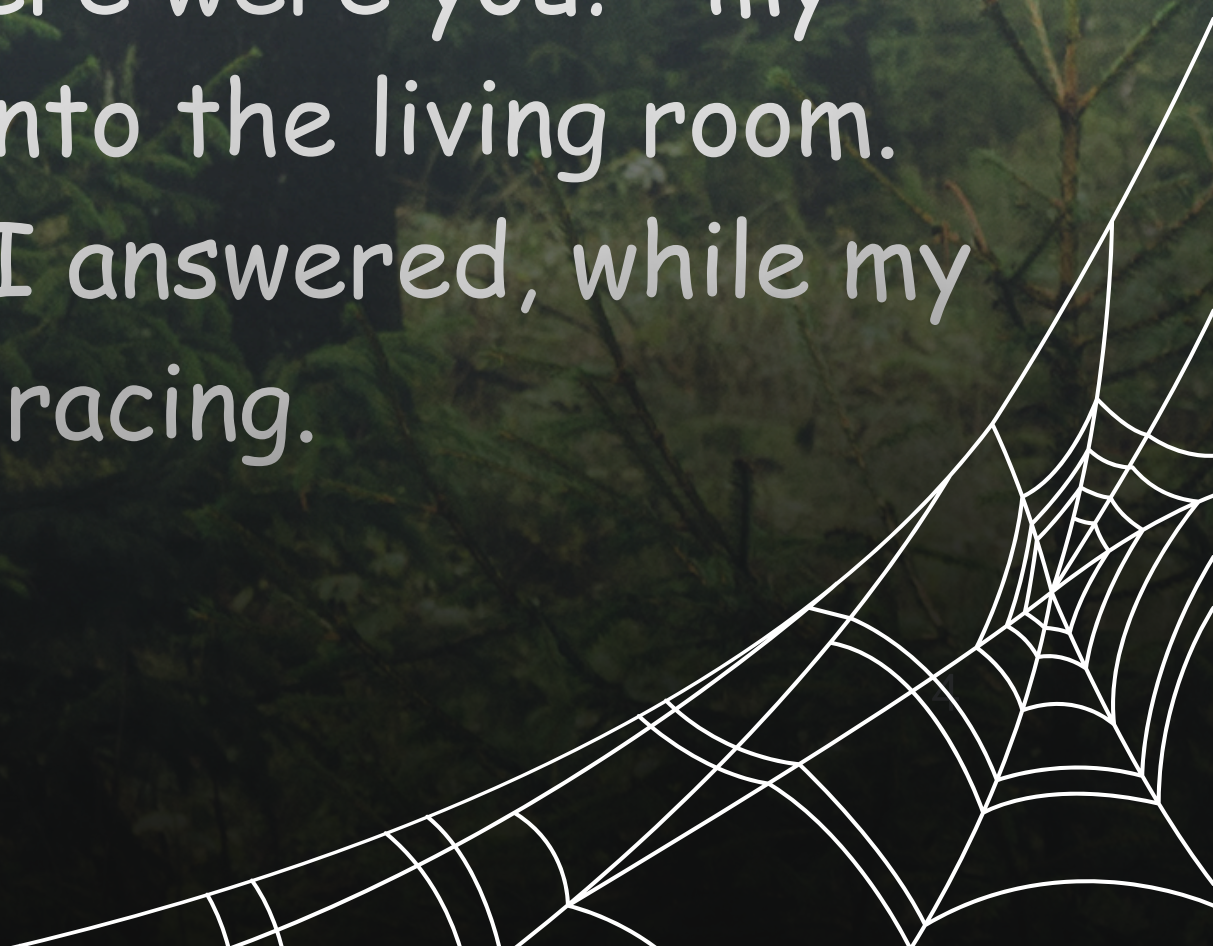

Now you write what happened next and how the story ends. Use your imagination. You can use some of the words at the bottom of this page if you want to.

Suddenly my dog started barking very loudly. I looked in the direction my dog was barking to, it was the scary house. It was big and looked very old. Suddenly my dog started running very fast and I had to chase him. "Stop!" I shouted but he kept running. He stopped in the middle of the house and sat down. I wanted to walk out again but then I heard a strange noise. I looked around but I didn't see anybody, just some blood on a picture. I took a closer look at it, there was a graveyard and on one of the gravestones I discovered my name! I started panicking. Suddenly I heard this strange noise again. It came from upstairs. "What are you doing in my house?" a scary voice whispered. My heart started racing and I looked for the door. My dog ran in so fast, that I couldn't remember where we went in! "Watch out" the voice said again and suddenly the man stood on the other side of the room! I was so scared that I just picked my dog up and jumped out of the window. I ran as fast as I could and after some time I was at home again. I was out of breath. "Where were you?" my mother asked as I walked into the living room. "You will never believe this" I answered, while my heart was still racing.

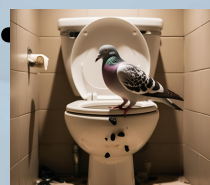

I saw a shadow in the window of the house . First I thought I was fantasizing it but then I saw it again .My dog barked and I got curious while I was walking into the house. Maybe I will regret it later , but my curiosity won.In the house it was silent and although it was creepy ,I liked it.As i walked into the kitchen I found a big bloodstain on the floor. Maybe it's just decoration from halloween I thought but then I heard a scream from the basement. Okay that was scary . But again my curiosity won , so I sneaked to the door of the basement."Help,please!"someone yelled . Although my heart was racing I slowly opened the door . I saw nothing , only darkness.I stepped into the darkness and looked for the lightswitch . But suddenly I felt a cold hand on my neck . Then I fell down the stairs . I was sure I did just break my leg ,but I wanted to get up ,because I was not going to be one of those dumb people in horrorfilm that give up just,because they fell down some stairs . I froze . As the light was turned on and saw two persons . The first one wore a mask and the other one had blood on her face . And then I realized , the one with the mask on was a wanted serialkiller and the girl was missed."Watch out!"the girl screamed ,but it was too late...

A wolf and a bear ran past me. I was frozen, I couldn't move and my dog was barking as loud as he could. After a few minutes I quietly moved forward although I was scared. I heard a strange noise the whole time. I wanted to go home but I forgot the way. Never in my life have I been so scared. With my dog in my arms I walked further. I was shivering on my whole body. Suddenly I saw a house. I was so happy I ran there as fast as I could. At the house I knocked at the door. It slowly opened and in the house were a table, chairs, a kitchen and stairs. At the table sat a young woman. "Come in", she said. A little bit scared but also happy I walked in but suddenly the woman started to laugh very creepily and my dog barked. I wanted to run out but it was like there was an invisible wall. She slowly stood up and walked to me. The young woman packed me I cried and screamed but it didn't help, she brought me upstairs and locked me in a room with not even a window. She only shouted "I'll bring you something from your dog when he is cooked". I screamed but I only heard my dog crying and barking and then nothing. A few minutes later she came in with a plate and on the plate was the head of my dog...

....suddenly a lightning struck nearby and it was starting to rain heavily. I had to take cover so I went inside the old haunted house. I didn't notice that my dog was gone until I was already in the house and he ran home to get help I suppose. As I stepped foot into the house my whole body started to shiver. It was very dark but thankfully an old lantern was right in front of me. I lit it up since I had a box of matches with me. And then I made my way inside the house. There were cobwebs everywhere. Paintings probably worth millions! But I didn't care about that. There were some stairs leading down and out of curiosity I went down. It was much different down here. You couldn't hear a thing down here. I had an uncanny feeling exploring there. Suddenly, a coffin was laying in the middle of the room. I slowly approached it and opened it up because I'm not a smart human being. A strange man with a mask popped out holding a chainsaw. My heart fell to my stomach. I reacted quickly and ran back up. But the man was way faster than me so I had to think smart. I put stuff in front of the basement door to get him trapped but he ran through the door destroying everything in his way. I grabbed a metal pipe and hit his face several times. He stood there unfazed. The man picked me up ready to finish me off. But right as he wanted to slice me up into pieces the police arrived and surrounded the both of us. The terrifying man surrendered and let me fall on the ground. The man was arrested. The police told me: "We found your dog whining and barking in front of our station for help. We followed him and luckily found you." I couldn't believe it. If it wasn't for my dog I would have been dead! Me and my dog returned home and I promised him to buy him whatever he wants.

THE HAUNTED HOUSE

I walked the dog after dinner last night and when it was time to return home, I decided to take a shortcut through the woods. On the edge of the wood there was a haunted house.

When I walked past the house I heard a strange noise.

Suddenly I saw a shadow moving around the house. I hid behind a tree, but my dog started barking. I tried to calm her down, although I needed to calm down myself. I heard a creepy laugh and suddenly somebody started turning an engine. It was a chainsaw. I tried to not move and to hold myself from crying, but again the man laughed and walked around the house. My dog Daisy tried to move on, but we couldn't, because he would see and then chase us. The second that I thought about that the noise stopped and I heard footsteps behind the house. The man had something in his hands. I saw that, because the moonlight was very bright. I noticed that the thing in his hands was an axe. This was getting very serious right now. A bit later the horrible chainsaw was turned on again. I really wanted to run away. At that moment I hoped that this all was just a dream so I quickly closed my eyes. No it wasn't just a dream. My hands were sweating and my heart was racing. My knees and hands shivered so hard that I thought that I would faint soon. Behind me I saw a road. I wanted to run there, but my dog started whimpering so I couldn't. It was getting windy and I felt cold on my face. I began to shiver. " Everything is gonna be fine " I said to my dog. Angrily my dog barked. The noise from the chainsaw came close to the tree we were hiding behind. We started to run. To run for our life. Suddenly I fell on my knee. It hurt so bad. I looked behind me. I saw the man with the bloody axe and the creepy chainsaw running towards me. The old man held my arms – there was no escape.

Suddenly, there was something in the dark. The creature went in the haunted house. I decided to follow. There was a room with maps on the wall and in the next room there was a person, but the person didn't breath and didn't move. So I decided to go in the next room. There was a wall full of blood. I was scared and my dog Layla barked so I was shocked of this house. Then, there was another room and slowly I went in, then I saw that this was a normal kitchen, but I noticed that something was wrong with the knives. They were full of blood. Then I looked in the fridge and there were around one hundred weapons. So I thought I was in a house of a gang or a serial killer. I was so scared of this house that I decided to call the cops. After ten minutes the police officers came. They wanted to see all the things but then they told me " The things are all fake "~~This is all for the new~~ Horror film." The film is coming in the cinema tomorrow. The person who didn't breath was a doll. The creature was the director of the film. He just picked up all the things they needed for the film. The next day I watched the film and it was very cool.

THE FUNNY END

...I heard something strange opening the door and I quietly went into the house.

I was so scared but I wanted to find out who was there.

It was so dark and creepy, because there weren't any windows.

I was a little scared of the cobwebs.

Suddenly something flew over me fast and I screamed „Help“

My dog started barking very loudly, but I saw something small sitting next to the old table.

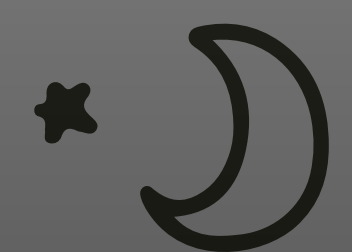

It was just a little bat.

A few minutes later my dog and I went out of the house and ran away.

Suddenly I heard a scream and there was a shadow.

I started to run as fast as I could home.

I will never go back to this place again.

...Suddenly I saw a white ghost in the door. I was scared because I don't like ghosts. I closed my eyes and went into the haunted house. Then it was dark in the black building, because there was no electricity anymore. Then I took my flashlight from my pocket and walked up the stairs. A few minutes later somebody screamed because the house was haunted. In my opinion it was a werewolf. Then it became louder. I got scared but I didn't know if it was real. I grabbed a sharp axe and hid behind the wall. I heard footsteps coming from the stairs and hit. The werewolf died and I was save. At next I walked around and found a golden key on the dirty floor. I took it and went to a brown door. I went through the door and saw a lot of bats between the cobwebs. It was dark in the small room. The strange door closed and I got a red face. Then I took the golden key and I opened the door again. I ran out of the house because it was really mysterious in this house. A few minutes later I was in the garden and my heart was racing. I saw an old graveyard in the darkness. Suddenly a black vampire came from one of these gravestones. Luckily, the vampire ended up in smoke and I left the garden because I was shocked and tired. So I went home.

Suddenly, my dog barked loudly. I couldn't see anything. Although my dog barked, I kept walking. I wanted to go home, because it was Halloween and 9 o' clock in the evening. Suddenly, I saw a werewolf with an axe and a killer clown with a chainsaw. I heard a loud noise from the chainsaw. My heart was racing. I ran away as fast I could and called my mum. I was in danger, because the werewolf yelled at me. My mum arrived by car and ran over the werewolf. The dead werewolf ended up in smoke. The killer clown attacked my mum with the chainsaw and then the killer clown chased me. I ran away very fast, but then I stumbled. Luckily my dog bit the clown and he fell down and his chainsaw was destroyed. Now I used the change and ran home. My dad asked me: "Are you ok?" But then I woke up. Everything was just a bad horror dream that I had. I was so glad!

JAN

... I saw another black and big dog on a rock next to the house. The moon was bright and clear in the dark sky and the strange dog barked very loudly. Then I looked inside the house. There were many golden bars on a desk. I looked at my dog, but he wasn't here anymore, although he was next to me one moment ago. Suddenly I saw my dog in the haunted house! „Hello!“, I yelled. Then I went inside. Suddenly the door closed and I knew: It was a trap! I heard somebody laughing. Under the door I could see blood on the floor. I sneaked into another room and opened the wooden door to the basement, because I could hear my dog. My heart was racing. I peeked into the room but I stood outside. Suddenly I noticed that the room wasn't a room, it was a graveyard!

There was a bloody hand of a zombie in front of a gravestone. Somebody laughed again. I felt heavy breathing from behind. I turned around and saw a werewolf with old and dirty clothes and a big mouth. It was the same wolf that was standing on the rock outside. Suddenly it started running towards me. There was no escape. In a blink of an eye I saw myself lying in blood.

When I walked past the house I heard a strange noise. I slowly turned around, it was really creepy. Then I walked in. Suddenly I saw a lot of blood on the floor leading to another room. I slowly went to the room and the blood got more and more. "Ahhhhh"; I screamed, because there was a corpse on the floor. It was so scary! Suddenly I heard a laugh in front of me. Somebody grabbed me from behind. I couldn't see the creature, I thought it was a ghost. I began to cry loudly. Then the ghost took me to another room. It picked up a bloody axe from the floor. It wanted to murder me! I screamed "I don't want to die!" Suddenly, the ghost disappeared and I was in my room. It was only a nightmare, I realized. I ran to the kitchen and drank a glass of water, because I was really thirsty. Since that night I have been afraid of ghosts.

Rachel

After a long walk with my dog milo in the dark streets at night.

It was very cold and a shiver was running down my spine because of it.

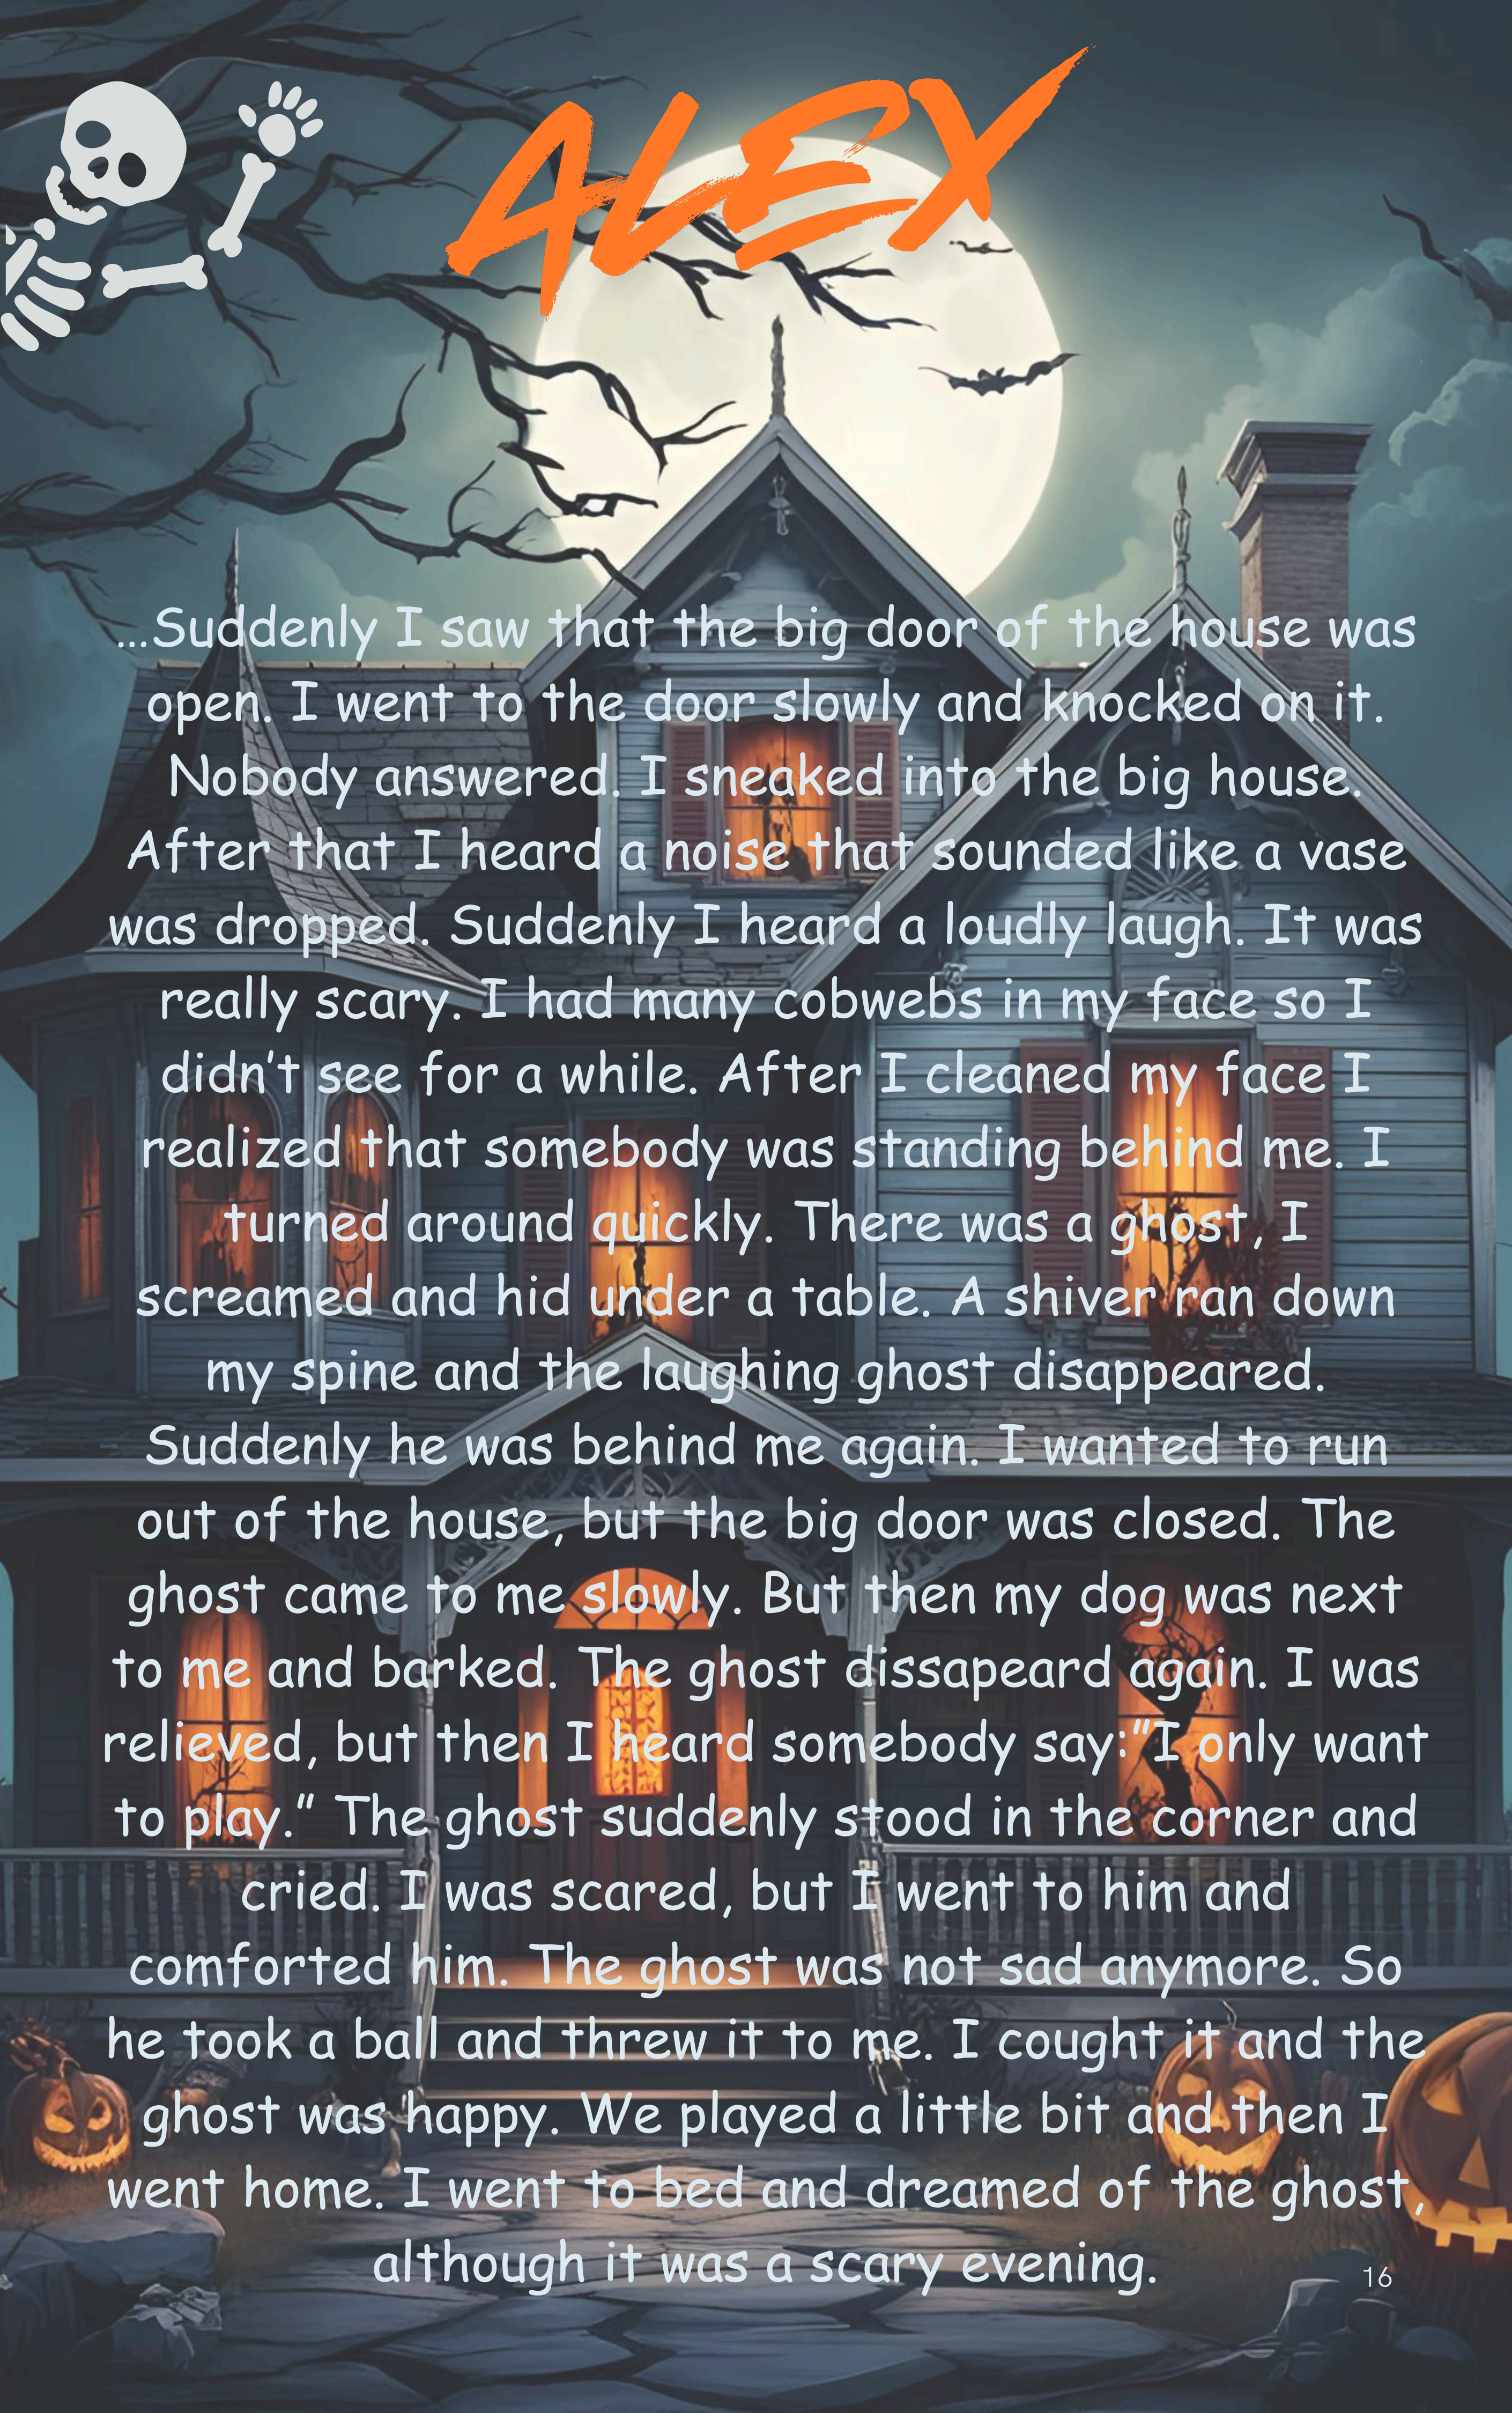

After a while me and my dog suddenly heard some noises coming from the shadows, the big houses were making.

I turned around to see-nothing.

Suddenly I saw two red eyes staring at me.

I was startled and so was my dog who started barking in the direction of the red eyes.

Suddenly something jumped in my direction

ALEX

...Suddenly I saw that the big door of the house was open. I went to the door slowly and knocked on it. Nobody answered. I sneaked into the big house. After that I heard a noise that sounded like a vase was dropped. Suddenly I heard a loudly laugh. It was really scary. I had many cobwebs in my face so I didn't see for a while. After I cleaned my face I realized that somebody was standing behind me. I turned around quickly. There was a ghost, I screamed and hid under a table. A shiver ran down my spine and the laughing ghost disappeared. Suddenly he was behind me again. I wanted to run out of the house, but the big door was closed. The ghost came to me slowly. But then my dog was next to me and barked. The ghost disappeared again. I was relieved, but then I heard somebody say: "I only want to play." The ghost suddenly stood in the corner and cried. I was scared, but I went to him and comforted him. The ghost was not sad anymore. So he took a ball and threw it to me. I caught it and the ghost was happy. We played a little bit and then I went home. I went to bed and dreamed of the ghost, although it was a scary evening.
